Dear Parents,

As we approach the parents' evening, I wanted to share some news about the Foxglove class's transition into Year 2 this September. With the changes in staff this year, ensuring consistency for our pupils is a top priority. I'm pleased to announce that Miss Hatton will continue to be their teacher in Year 2.

Miss Hatton has already built wonderful relationships with all the pupils, and her continued presence will provide a stable and supportive environment for their growth. This means your children won't have to adjust to a new teacher, allowing them to focus on their learning and development.

I believe this continuity will greatly benefit the children, and I'm confident that Miss Hatton's dedication and familiarity with the class will make Year 2 a fantastic experience for everyone.

Yours,

Ruth Vonk
